Capitaine Tasman 087N Operational Update

Dear Valued Customers,

The Capitaine Tasman 087N is expected to have operational delays through Auckland and Suva on her current rotation. We have assessed various options to proactively regain proforma schedule and will need to omit Nuku'alofa.

Asia/Australia exports to Nuku'alofa will tranship in Auckland and New Zealand exports will load directly to the Magellan 037N, ETA 28-September to Nuku'alofa. This is a two-day advancement of arrival time relative to the Tasman 087N.

These adjustments will be reflected in our schedules released today, should you have any further questions please contact your NPD representative.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,
NPD
