High Season Network Adjustments

Dear Valued Customers,

We have entered the high season and across our network demand for capacity remains strong whilst all services continue to experience the challenges of disruption in terms of ongoing port congestion, insufficient labour, and various other operational constraints.

To align capacity with demand and ensure timely delivery of cargo we wish to advise you of the following network adjustments.

Capitaine Magellan:

Upon completion of voyage 21 the Capitaine Magellan will transfer to the Inter-Island North service on a rotation covering Lautoka, Suva, Tarawa and Kiritimati* (*v22 only). She will commence voyage 22 in Lautoka on approximately 13th of November.

Capitaine Wallis:

Upon her return from dry dock, she will replace the Capitaine Magellan in the Nouvapac service on a rotation covering Auckland, Noumea, Lautoka, Suva, Port Vila and Santo. She will commence voyage 392 in Auckland on approximately 5th of November.

Southern Pearl:

A Funafuti, Tuvalu call will remain in her rotation in the Inter-Island South service for voyages 1505, 1506 and 1507.

These adjustments will be reflected in our schedules released today, should you have any further questions please contact your NPD representative.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,
NPD
