Implementation of Bill of Lading Amendment Fee & Forewarning of Late SLI Submission Fee

Dear Valued Customers,

While NPDL understand the complexities of shipping to the South Pacific Islands, we incur administrative and third-party costs from amendments made to Bills of Lading. To recover these costs, effective 1 August we will implement a Bill of Lading Amendment fee of NZD 75.

The Bill of Lading amendment fee will be applicable for any Bill of Lading that is amended, at shipper's request, after vessel departure from cargo load port.

We continue to note that many customers are submitting SLI's after cut-off, despite repeated reminders. We will continue to monitor such cases. For now, we will reserve decision on implementing this fee to all customers, or to repeat offenders only. We ask for your support to take note of deadlines and support NPDL in the smooth processing of your bookings.

We thank you for your understanding and continued support.

Sincerely,
NPDL
