NPDL Tahiti Delay In AKL

Dear Valued Customer,

We regret to advise that the schedule of the 'NPDL Tahiti' has been delayed.

Following cargo operations in Auckland, we have had to repair one of the ships cranes. Unfortunately this job has been delayed due to operational complications.

Currently we do not have a completion time for this operation, but we will keep you informed as we update both her departure and arrival times in market.

Thank you for your continued support, should you have any further questions or queries please contact your NPDL representative.

Sincerely,

NPDL
