PFL Matai Voy 009N delayed berthing in Suva

Dear valued customers,

We wish to advise that there will be delays to the PFL Matai Voy 009N/S berthing in Suva. Another vessel has experienced a crane failure over the weekend and needs to perform repairs before she can safely depart. This recovery plan, is taking up the full berth, leading to delays across all ships to be worked in the Port of Suva.

The PFL Matai was due to arrive and commence work on Sunday October 20th but based on current information, is due to berth in the evening of Wednesday October 23rd.

Should there be any changes to this timeframe, we will update you accordingly.

If you have any questions, please contact your nearest NPDL representative.

Yours sincerely,

NPDL
